

Lord I bring my life before You
All my anger and my pain
All the times that I've ignored You
When I've walked in sin again
Lord I ask You now to heal me
Holy Spirit, cleanse my heart and mind
Come Lord Jesus, purify me
Help me leave my past behind

As I stand here in your presence
I'm amazed and mystified
At the wideness of Your mercy
And the love with which You died
For my life is so unworthy
And I lift my hands up to Your throne
Only You can sanctify me
Only You and You alone

For You are my great Redeemer
You're the Lord, the God of grace
You're the Lamb, the Risen Saviour
How I long to see Your face
You will come again in glory
All the earth will sing in one accord
On my knees I'll bow before You
And confess that You are Lord
